

BOARD BILL NO. 417 INTRODUCED BY: ALDERWOMAN PHYLLIS YOUNG

1 An ordinance pertaining to surplus property that has educational or historical value;
2 authorizing the Supply Commissioner, upon approval of the Board of Standardization, to donate
3 certain surplus property that have educational or historical value to not-for-profit corporations or
4 museums for public display or use; authorizing the Board of Standardization to promulgate rules
5 and regulations in furtherance of and consistent with this ordinance.

6 WHEREAS, the city has certain property that has been declared surplus, and

7 WHEREAS, said property has minimal or no monetary value, and

8 WHEREAS, said property has educational and/or historical significance, and

9 WHEREAS, it is in the best interest of the citizens and visitors to the City that the 10 property be accessible to the general public and that the property be kept for educational or 11 historical value.

12 NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF ST. LOUIS AS FOLLOWS:

13 SECTION ONE. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other ordinance concerning
14 the disposition of surplus property, the Supply Commissioner, upon approval of the Board of 15 Standardization, may donate to not-for-profit corporations or museums surplus property that has 16 educational or historical value if said property will be accessible to the general public.

17 SECTION TWO. The Board of Standardization shall promulgate rules and 18 regulations to further the intent of this Ordinance.

19 .

February 16, 2006

Page 1 of 1

Board Bill # 417, Sponsor: Alderman

February 16, 2006

Page 2 of 1

Board Bill # 417, Sponsor: Alderman